continues with feverish activity. With only four days remaining before with only four days remaining before the enlistments close, the recruiting officers have a heavy task before them in rounding up the large numbers of abie-bodied bowlers who have signified their willingness to fight for the cause. Reports emanfight for the cause. Reports emanfrom the headquarters of the McLelland. 11 85 51 Crowley 104 92 10 general staff indicate that full quotas may be expected from the outlying sections of the country. New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, particularly, are responding to the

The advance guard of the maple pin legions is arriving in town this week, but the main columns will not advance until the latter part of next

Staff orders have gone out calling upon the heavy artillery of New York and between fifty and seventy-five tenpin troops have responded. Hoston's crack light artillery troops have commandeered a train and will reach the mobilization center before the commencement of hostilities.

A strict censorship has been thrown around the plans of the general staff, but information gleaned from much deleted reports seems to point to a prize purse of between $10,000 and $20,000 for the ultimate victors in the maple pin contest.

maple pin contest.

Assurances are given by J. J. Donovan, accretary of the Atlantic Coast Bowling Association, who has just arrived in town from Boston, that a large contingent of bowling enthusiasts will be on hand from the Hub for the Washington A. C. B. A. tourney.

Among the strictly amateur aggregations coming down for the event will be a team from the Boston city club and one from the Colonial Club of Dorchester. These teams are composed of "Boston pin" rollers, men who have never taken a shot at a duck, or a parent pin. The "Boston pin" is similar to the candlepin, so extessively used throughout New England, but is fatter in the middle, than the slim-waisted candle. The game is played without deadwood. The clubmen will roll at the ducks and the candles, in the tournament.

the ducks and the candles, in the tournament.

Dr. E. E. House, of the Colonial quint, will roll in the individual competitions,
in all classes, as will Bail, of the Bosten City Club.

C. M. Goodnow, former vice president of the Boston National League ball club, is acting in the capacity of manager for the Boston city team.

Ralph Brooks will also be here with his Portland Athletic Club quint, which probably will bowl a match game with one of the local teams before the opening of the tougney. The team is composed of candle-snuffers.

The Washington Gas Light Company has entered two teams in the big meet, the Commercials and the West Stations.

Teams To Be Put Out on Courts By Practically Every Institution Here.

By BRYAN MORSE.

Although two weeks or more must elapse before racquet wielders can get any action on the courts, tennis activities are picking up in the schools to the point where indications point to an un-usually successful season. Practically every school in this section of the country will be represented by a tennis team, and interschool matches will be the feature of mid-week and Saturdays during May and June. Central, which came to the front with an exceptional schoolboy team last season, will put out another team. Western has had a tennis team for several years back. Tech is fostering the game and Business is arranging contests for its players. Eastern will be able to put a team in competition.

Of the other schoolboy racquet players, Georgetown Prep, St. Albans, Friends, and the Army and Navy Preps can be counted upon for matches. Episcopal High School, of Alexandria, has offered dates to the local schools, while several Baltimore institutions, notably Dunhams, Marston, and others, are in line for week-end conflicts.

White Shades Wells.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 21-Harder punching and a strong rally in closing rounds carned a shade for Charley White, of Chicago, over Matt Wells, the English lightweight, in a ten-round no decision bout here last night, according to the sport writers at the ringside. Wells did most of the leading, landing straight lefts and rights to White's jaw, but the blows lacked power. White showed to best advanage in close-range fighting and scored heavily at times with body blows.

barton Club last year did much for tennis among the younger members of the game here. Louis I. Doyle, who fostered the sport, is of the opinion that the high schools and prep schools must be looked to for feeders for the various clubs here. Doyle was impressed with the general excellent of play among the youngsters and the spirit of sportsmanship which was always in evidence.

An effort will be made to stage an interscholastic tournament here this spring, it is understood. The tourney would not suffer a lack of entrants, for more than sixty schoolboys could be gotten into a singles and doubles affair on short notice.

Some of the leading exponents last season were Howard. McVey. Dutton. Eppelsheimer, Dortch, Classell, Seiden. Gleseking, Baker, Oyster, and Williams Many of these youngsters attend high schools and prep schools here, and will take part in matches this spring.

MASKED MARVEL RACES NIGHTLY.

Some eighteen years ago klaw & Erlanger gave to the world the immortal drama of "Hen-Hur," from the widely read book of the time. Season after season this virile masterpiece has delighted and astounded the millions. Now comes "Pollyanna," in a different vein, but with quite as distinct a purpose. Countless people have read about her—she has inspired helpful clubs and societies all over the world. So she steps from page to stage—this girl who plays the "glad game"—who sees a bright lining to every dark cloud—to shine into your lives just as the sun does!
